

CLE Presented by the Attorney General's Office

CLE BOOK CLUB

Evening's Empire: The Story of My Father's Murder*
by Zachary Lazar

In Evening's Empire, Zachary Lazar attempts to reconstruct the sequence of events that led to his father's murder. The year was 1975, a time when, according to the Arizona Republic, "land-fraud artists roamed the state in sharp suits, gouging money from buyers and investors." The day before he was scheduled to appear in front of a grand jury, accountant Edward Lazar, former business partner of land-fraud godfather Ned Warren Sr., was killed in a gangland-style murder in a Phoenix parking garage, a killing related to the murder of reporter Don Bolles only a year later.

Special Guest: Zachary Lazar
