

“Prevention is the best way to stop criminals. By giving more Arizonans information about consumer fraud and available resources, more people will spot the red flags and protect themselves and their loved ones.”

Terry Goddard,
Arizona Attorney General

Benefits of an internship at the Attorney General’s Office:

- Gain valuable experience with consumer protection, civil rights, community outreach and educational programs
- Provide support to the Elder Issues and Identity Theft Helplines
- Receive school credit - college students ages 18+ are encouraged to apply
- Openings in Phoenix and Tucson

Contact us now:
Community Services Program

(602) 542-2123

communityservices@azag.gov

Interested in volunteering?
Apply online at www.azag.gov

The Attorney General is the chief legal officer of the State. The Office provides legal advice to most State agencies. It also investigates and prosecutes consumer fraud, white-collar crime, organized crime, public corruption, drug, environmental violations and deprivation of civil rights.