Terry Goddard to Promote ID Theft Prevention

(Phoenix, Ariz. – August 18, 2005) Attorney General Terry Goddard will travel to Douglas Friday to promote his identity theft prevention program. Goddard will be joined by Arizona AARP officials, County Attorney Ed Rheinheimer and Cochise County Superior Court Clerk Denise Lundin for this presentation.

Arizona ranks as the number one state in the United States for identity theft. This program is aimed at raising the awareness of ID theft and providing steps residents can take so they do not become victims.

This event is the first in a series of statewide presentations entitled Protect Yourself Against Identity Theft. The forums are sponsored by Arizona AARP and the Attorney General's Office.

Future forums will be held in Tucson, Yuma and Mesa this fall.
