Arizona Civil Rights Advisory Board to Host Community Forum

(Phoenix, Ariz. – May 13, 2005) The Arizona Civil Rights Advisory Board is focusing its May 17 board meeting on civil rights issues affecting the gay, lesbian, bi-sexual and transgender community. The meeting will be held at Phoenix College beginning at 6 p.m.

The seven-member Board, appointed by the Governor, plans to hear these issues in a community forum format, and is inviting the public to participate and present information and recommendations. The Board held a similar meeting in Tucson last November and heard from several groups, including law enforcement representatives about civil rights issues affecting this community.
