Terry Goddard to Host Crime Prevention Forum in Ahwatukee

(Phoenix, Ariz. – Oct. 31, 2007) Attorney General Terry Goddard is inviting Ahwatukee residents to a Crime and Fraud Prevention Forum on Monday, Nov. 5, beginning at 6:30 p.m. The forum is being held to increase awareness of local crime trends, discuss successful prevention strategies and give citizens an opportunity to voice questions and concerns.

Goddard will be joined by several local officials, including Phoenix City Councilman Greg Stanton and Phoenix Police Chief Jack Harris. They will discuss a variety of law enforcement issues, including methamphetamine, human smuggling, drug trafficking, identity theft, consumer scams, elder abuse and Internet safety.

A number of local organizations will participate in this event, including:

- Better Business Bureau
- AARP
- Secretary of State
- Alert Recall
- Maricopa County Meth Task Force
- McGruff Safe Kids Total ID Systems
- Phoenix Block Watch Advisory Board
- Latin American Association of Real Estate Professionals
- Promoting Awareness and Victim Empowerment
- Phoenix Parks and Recreation Department
- Phoenix Public Library
- Phoenix Fire and Crisis Response
