

COVID-19

SCAM ALERT:

Door-to-Door Sales Presentations and Scams

Arizona Attorney General
Mark Brnovich

Scam at a glance:

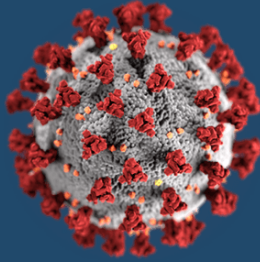

A stranger approaches you at your home claiming they can clean and sanitize your home amid the health crisis and can keep you safe from COVID-19.

Warning Signs:

- A person shows up at your residence without contacting you prior to their arrival offering services you did not ask for.
- The person claims they can protect people from COVID-19.
- If you express that you are not interested in the product or service, they become hostile, impatient, and possibly aggressive.

Protect Yourself:

- If an offer sounds too good to be true, it probably is.
- Never allow anyone into your house that you do not know or didn't request assistance from.
- Do not provide personal or financial information at your door to anyone.
- The only way to currently help protect yourself from COVID-19 is by following recommended hygiene guidelines and social distancing.
- There currently is no cure or vaccination for the virus.

Resources:

Arizona Attorney General's Office

www.azag.gov/complaints/consumer

Phoenix: (602) 542 - 5763, Tucson: (520) 628 - 6648
or Toll-free: (800) 352 - 8431

Centers for Disease Control

www.CDC.gov/Coronavirus or (800) 232 - 4636

World Health Organization

www.WHO.int

www.azag.gov/scamalert