

SUPREME COURT OF ARIZONA

ARIZONA REPUBLICAN PARTY, a	)	Arizona Supreme Court
recognized political party; and	)	No. CV-22-0048-SA
YVONNE CAHILL, an officer and	) member of the Arizona Republican	) Party and Arizona voter and	)
taxpayer,	)
	)
Petitioners,	)
	)	FILED 03/23/2022
v.	)
	)
KATIE HOBBS, in her official	) capacity as Arizona Secretary of	)
State; and STATE OF ARIZONA, a	)
body politic,	)
	)
Respondents.	)
	)

---

ORDER DENYING MOTION TO STRIKE

The Court has received the "Arizona Secretary of State's Motion to Strike State of Arizona's Response to Application for Issuance of Writ Under Exercise of Original Jurisdiction and Brief Amicus Curiae of Arizona Attorney General Mark Brnovich," filed on March 15, 2022, and "The State of Arizona and the Attorney General's Response to the Secretary of State's Motion to Strike," filed on March 18, 2022. Upon consideration, the alleged legal errors in the State's Response do not warrant the sanction of striking the entire Response as requested in this motion (although the Secretary acknowledges Section IV is a proper response). Moreover, with respect to the motion to strike the Attorney General's "Brief Amicus Curiae," it is clear that: (1) Rule 7(f), Rules of Procedure for Special Actions provides that an "amicus curiae brief . . . shall conform to the requirements of Rule 16, ARCAP," and (2) ARCAP 16(a) states that the "[a]micus curiae is not a party to the appeal, and must be independent of any party to the appeal." Even if the Attorney General's "Brief Amicus Curiae" does not meet such technical requirements, it is clear the Attorney General is entitled to be heard in this case under Arizona statute. See A.R.S. § 12-1841(A) (Attorney General "shall be entitled to be heard" in "any proceeding in which a state statute . . . is alleged to be unconstitutional"). The Attorney General's "Brief Amicus Curiae" may be considered a responsive pleading under Arizona statute rather than an amicus brief. Therefore, upon consideration,

IT IS ORDERED denying the "Arizona Secretary of State's Motion to Strike State of Arizona's Response to Application for Issuance of Writ Under Exercise of Original Jurisdiction and Brief Amicus Curiae of Arizona Attorney General Mark Brnovich."

DATED this 23rd day of March, 2022.

_____/s/_____
KATHRYN H. KING
Duty Justice

TO:

Alexander Michael del Ray Kolodin
Veronica Thorson
Roger W Strassburg Jr
Arno Naeckel
Sambo Dul
Roopali H Desai
Kristen M Yost
D Andrew Gaona
Mark Brnovich
Joseph A Kanefield
Brunn W Roysden III
Michael S Catlett
Jennifer Wright
Timothy A LaSota
William P Ring
Roy Herrera
Daniel A Arellano
Jillian Andrews
M Patrick Moore Jr.
Elisabeth C Frost
Richard A Medina
William K Hancock
Paul F Eckstein
Daniel C Barr
Austin Yost
Luci Danielle Davis
Kathleen E Brody
Jon Sherman
Daniel J Adelman
Samuel Schnarch
Allister R Adel
Thomas P Liddy
Joseph Branco
Karen J Hartman-Tellez
Joseph Eugene La Rue
Anna Christina Estes-Werther
Nancy L Davidson
James E Barton II
Jacqueline Soto
Maya S Abela

Corey Lovato
Doreen N McPaul
Katherine Claire Belzowski
Frances R Sjoberg
Aidan Graybill
Patricia F Bohnie
Judith M Dworkin
Joshua W Carden
David Warrington
Gary Lawkowski
Dennis I Wilenchik
John D Wilenchik
Jordan C Wolff
Alberto Rodriguez
Alicia Moffatt