Why you should attend

Hear an overview of significant environmental regulatory rollbacks initiated by the Trump administration in 2025. Attendees will learn about the key executive orders on climate, energy, and environment policy underpinning the rollbacks, the freezing of billions of dollars in federal environmental grants, and the systematic elimination of environmental justice programs. The session highlights regulatory changes to the Clean Air Act, the Clean Water Act, and the Endangered Species Act and discusses how these shifts impact Arizona.
