

CLE Presented by the Attorney General's Office

The Practical Side of Writing to Persuade

Thursday, April 9, 2026
10:00AM – 12:00

Palm Bldg.: Training Room A & B #138

This CLE is Open to the Attorney General's Office and Current Government Employees. A Government ID is required upon entrance.

May qualify for up to 2 hours of CLE credit

Why you should attend

This 2 hour seminar will focus on the pragmatic side of what makes for effective (and ineffective) legal writing. It will offer a discussion and examples of how judicial decision-makers may resolve disputes in the real world of hectic dockets and limited resources, and present step-by-step approaches that conform to how real-world judicial decision-making works and can earn the author persuasive advantages.

Presenter

Bill Richards, Attorney Richards & Moskowitz PLC
