

CLE Presented by the Attorney General's Office

The Art(s) of Attorney-Client Cooperation

Tuesday, June 9, 2026 1:00PM – 4:00PM

Palm Bldg.: Training Room A & B #138

This CLE is Open to the Attorney General's Office and Current Government Employees. A Government ID is required upon entrance.

May qualify for up to 3 hours of CLE Credit to include 1 hour Ethics Credit

Why you should attend

This 3 hour seminar (1 hour of ethics) will explore the art of developing client trust, reliance and cooperation across a variety of efforts that are key to successful management of litigation. Whether it is ensuring complete and timely client production of records, obtaining help from client factual experts and witnesses in identifying case facts and strategies, earning dedicated effort from clients in preparing for testimony, or obtaining cooperation in settlement efforts, this seminar will explain what builds and undermines client trust, confidence and desire to cooperate with an attorney, and will offer specific strategies for quickly developing client trust and assistance that are so critical to success in litigated matters.
