

Arizona Attorney General
Office of Victim Services
Serving Arizona's Crime Victims

Basic and Advanced Victims' Rights 2018-2019

Victims' Rights Education

Arizona
Attorney General's Office

Phoenix:
Ph: 602.542.4911
Fax: 602.542.8453

Tucson:
Ph: 520.628.6456
Fax: 520.628.6566

Toll Free:
866.742.4911

Learn more about Victims' Rights at www.azag.gov

FFAB31016
ARIZONA ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE OF VICTIM SERVICES
2005 N CENTRAL AVENUE- CAP
PHOENIX, AZ 85004

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Basic Victims' Rights

This presentation is suggested for employees new to victims' rights OR for anyone who needs a refresher.

Please note: It is highly recommended that one attends Basic Victims' Rights prior to attending Advanced Victims' Rights.

Agenda

- Brief History
- Definitions
- Victims' Journey through the Justice System with Applicable Rights and Responsibilities
 - Pre-Conviction/Adjudication
 - Restitution
 - Post-Conviction/Adjudication
- Victims' Compensation Programs

Basic Victims' Rights is presented from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. with a one-hour break for lunch (lunch on your own).

Advanced Victims' Rights

This presentation is for experienced victim services providers, Basic Victims' Rights graduates, and anyone interested in gaining a deeper understanding of victims' rights in the state of Arizona.

Agenda

- 2018 Legislative Updates
- Victims' Rights; A Victim's Perspective

Advanced Victims' Rights is presented in a 3 hour session from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m.

Basic and Advanced Victims' Rights Presentations are approved for AZPOST, COJET and CLE credit.

OTHER OFFERINGS

The Office of Victim Services also offers specific presentations on the following subjects:

- Victims' Rights Compliance (1.5 hours)
- Making Cents out of Restitution (1.5 hours)
- Capital Crime Cases and the Impact on Victims (1.5 hours)
- Victims Have Rights? (1.5 hours)
- Victims' Rights for Prosecution (2 hours)
- Victims' Rights for Law Enforcement (1.5 hours/AZPOST cert.)
- Victims' Rights for Probation (1 hour)

These presentations are not eligible for VOCA credit, and there is a minimum of 15 attendees required to schedule a training session.

SCHEDULE AND REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Visit www.azag.gov/victims-rights-training-schedule for the most up to date information and to:

- View the 2018-2019 schedule, which includes dates and locations currently scheduled.*
- Register for a session.
- Request a session for your agency/organization.

*Dates, locations, and training topics are subject to change and are scheduled throughout the year.

VOCA REQUIREMENTS

Both Basic and Advanced presentations meet VOCA victims' rights training requirement. Basic should be attended every 5 years and Advanced annually.

If you have additional questions, please contact our office at OVSTraining@azag.gov or call 602-542-8458.