B. Probation and terms.

- i. The Defendant shall receive a term of probation.
- ii. Unless designated a misdemeanor by the Court at the time of sentencing, the offense may only be designated a misdemeanor upon successful completion of probation, including the satisfaction of all financial terms of probation to include fines and fees.
- iii. ~~The Defendant shall complete no less than 100 hours of community restitution while on probation. The State will recommend that any community restitution hours completed after charges were filed but prior to sentencing be credited against this requirement, if proof is presented at the time of sentencing.~~
- iv. The Defendant shall not re-register to vote unless the Defendant is discharged from probation, the offense has been designated a misdemeanor, and, if applicable, the Court has restored the Defendant's Right to Vote as set forth in A.R.S. §13-905(B).

RT

C. Court-ordered revocation.

Independent of the designation of the offense as a misdemeanor or felony, the Court shall revoke the Defendant's voter registration at the time of sentencing pursuant to A.R.S. §13-603(G).

RT 3. All remaining charges are dismissed, and the following uncharged acts shall not be brought against Defendant: None.

RT 4. All victim(s) listed in the original indictment, complaint, or information retain all of their victim rights even if their names do not appear within the specific count(s) in term 1. Defendant agrees that uncharged victim(s) may address the court at sentencing. Defendant further agrees to have no contact with any victim(s), including uncharged victim(s) receiving restitution, without the prior knowledge and consent of either this Court or the probation department.

RT 5. This agreement serves to amend the indictment, complaint, or information to charge the offense(s) to which Defendant pleads, without the filing of any additional pleading. If Defendant is charged with a felony, he/she hereby waives and gives up his/her right to a preliminary hearing or other probable cause determination on the charges to which he/she pleads. However, if the plea is rejected by the court, either party withdraws, or if the conviction is subsequently reversed, the original charges and any charges that are dismissed by reason of this plea are automatically reinstated.

RT 6. Defendant agrees that this agreement shall not be binding on the State should Defendant be charged with or commit a crime between the time of this agreement and the time of sentencing in this cause, nor shall this agreement be binding on the State until the State confirms all representations made by Defendant and his/her attorney, to wit:

- Defendant avows that he/she HAS NO prior felony convictions.
- Defendant avows that he/she WAS NOT on felony probation, parole, community supervision, felony release, or pretrial release at the time of this offense.
- Defendant avows that he/she has NO OTHER pending felony cases in any jurisdiction under any name.

If the Defendant fails to appear for sentencing, the court may disregard the stipulated sentence and impose any lawful sentence which is the same as or exceeds the stipulated sentence in the plea agreement. In the event the court rejects the plea, or either the State or the Defendant withdraws from the plea, the Defendant hereby waives and gives up his/her right to a preliminary hearing or other probable cause determination on the original charges.

RT 7. The Defendant agrees pursuant to A.R.S. § 13-4033 that he/she may not appeal from the judgment entered or sentence imposed as a result of this plea agreement. Unless this agreement is rejected or withdrawn, the Defendant gives up any motions, objections or defenses which he/she has asserted or could assert in this case. If the Defendant obtains a new trial, the original charges and/or any pending charges in any implicated case(s) dismissed as a result of this Plea Agreement are automatically reinstated. If the Defendant obtains a new trial, the State shall have the right to file uncharged acts identified in term 3, and Defendant agrees to waive any timeliness or statute of limitations defenses to those uncharged acts.

The Defendant hereby waives any right to raise and/or to appeal any and all motions, defenses, probable cause determinations, restitution orders, and objections, which he/she has asserted or could assert to this prosecution, and to the Court's entry of judgment against and imposition of sentence consistent with this negotiated Plea Agreement. The Defendant further expressly waives any objections, motions, or defenses based upon the statute of limitations, Rule 8 Speedy Trial, Arizona Rules of Criminal Procedure, the Double Jeopardy Clause of the United States and Arizona Constitutions, Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963) and Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972), or any other constitutional restrictions on bringing of charges.

RT 8. The parties hereto fully and completely understand and agree that by entering into a plea agreement, Defendant consents to judicial fact-finding by preponderance of the evidence as to any aspect or enhancement of sentence, and that any sentence either stipulated to or recommended herein in term 2 is not binding on the court. In making the sentencing determination, the court is not bound by the rules of evidence. If after accepting this plea the court concludes that any of the plea agreement's provisions regarding the sentence or the term and conditions of probation are inappropriate, it can reject the plea. If the court decides to reject the plea agreement provisions regarding sentencing, it must give both the state and Defendant an opportunity to withdraw from the plea agreement. If, in this situation, either party elects to withdraw, the plea agreement is voided and the charges against the Defendant as they existed before any amendment, reduction, or dismissal on any implicated case(s) made as part of a plea agreement shall automatically be reinstated. If the plea agreement is voided, the State shall have the right to file uncharged acts identified in term 3, and Defendant agrees to waive any timeliness or statute of limitations defenses to those uncharged acts.

RT 9. If the court decides to reject the plea agreement provisions regarding sentencing and neither the state nor Defendant elects to withdraw from the plea agreement, then any sentence either stipulated to or recommended herein is not binding upon the court, and the court is bound only by the sentencing limits set forth in term 1 and the applicable statutes which may be less favorable than the sentence contemplated by the agreement.

RT 10. This plea agreement contemplates and is entered solely to resolve this criminal case. It is separate from, independent of, and is entered free of any consideration with respect to any past, present or future civil, administrative, or regulatory action or proceeding brought by or on behalf of the State of Arizona or any department, agency or entity thereof arising from or related to the facts and events giving rise to this criminal case. It does not in any way compromise or provide protections or defenses with respect to any such other proceeding, including but not limited to an action or proceeding pursuant to A.R.S. §§ 13-2301 through 13-2323 or A.R.S. §§ 13-4301 through 13-4315. It does not abrogate or limit the provisions of A.R.S. § 13-2314(H), A.R.S. § 13-2314.04(E), or A.R.S. § 13-4310(C) or in any other way compromise, limit or adversely affect the State in any such past, present or future civil action brought pursuant to A.R.S. §§ 13-2301 through 13-2323, A.R.S. §§ 13-4301 through 13-4315, or

A.R.S. § 32-1993, if applicable. Any relief from this plea agreement or other relief from this criminal case shall not give rise to relief from or serve to affect any resolution or disposition entered by court ruling or by agreement in any such other proceeding brought by or on behalf of the State.

11. I understand that if I am not a citizen of the United States that my decision to go to trial or enter into a plea agreement may have immigration consequences. Specifically, I understand that pleading guilty or no contest to a crime may affect my immigration status. Admitting guilt may result in deportation even if the charge is later dismissed. My plea or admission of guilt could result in my deportation or removal, could prevent me from ever being able to get legal status in the United States, or could prevent me from becoming a United States citizen. I understand that I am not required to disclose my legal status in the United States to the court.

12. I have read all the provisions of all pages of this agreement with the assistance of counsel or my counsel's translator and understand all the provisions of all pages of this agreement. I have discussed the case and my constitutional rights with my lawyer and have considered the risks associated with going to trial. My lawyer has explained the nature of the charge(s) and the elements of the crime(s) to which I am pleading. I understand that by pleading guilty I will be waiving and giving up my rights to: a trial by jury; to be represented at trial by appointed counsel if I cannot afford to hire my own; to confront, cross-examine, and compel the attendance of witnesses; to present evidence in my behalf; my right to remain silent; my privilege against self-incrimination; my presumption of innocence and right to appeal. I agree to enter my plea as indicated above on the terms and conditions set forth herein. I have decided on my own free will to enter into a plea agreement and am not on or under the influence of any drug, medication, liquor, or other intoxicant. My plea is not the result of force, threats, assurances, or promises other than those which are contained in writing in this agreement. I fully understand that if, as part of this plea agreement, I am granted probation by the court, the terms and conditions thereof are subject to modification at any time during the period of probation. I understand that if I violate any of the written conditions of my probation, my probation may be terminated and I can be sentenced to any term or terms stated above in term 1, without limitation.
