- 10.6. Special Requirements - See Appendix A, SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS.

perform their work in the manner that a reasonably competent and prudent paralegal would perform. All time deadlines specified by court or court rules shall be complied with.

13. Review of Services

The Office of the Attorney General reserves the right to review all and every part of the Services during performance or after completion as the Office of the Attorney General may see fit. If the Services or any part thereof have not been performed in accordance with this Agreement to the satisfaction of the Office of the Attorney General, the Office of the Attorney General may order that no further services be performed and may reject and refuse to pay for any improperly performed services.

14. Force Majeure

A Force Majeure for which said notice has not been given shall be an unexcused delay.

15. Suspension

The Office of the Attorney General may, by written notice, direct Counsel to suspend performance on any or all of the Services for a specified period of time. If any suspension is not occasioned by the fault or negligence of Counsel, this Agreement may be supplemented to compensate Counsel for extra costs incurred due to said suspension, provided that any claim for adjustment is supported by appropriate cost documentation, subject to audit, and asserted within twenty days after the date the Office of the Attorney General issues an order for resumption of performance of the Services.

16. Termination at Will

At the sole discretion of the Office of the Attorney General, the Office of the Attorney General may terminate this Agreement at any time, or may terminate all or any portion of the Services not then completed by giving the other party written notice of termination. Upon receipt of notice of termination, Counsel, unless the notice requires otherwise, shall discontinue performance of the Services on the date and to the extent specified in the notice, except those Services necessary to preserve and protect the work product of the Services already performed, and otherwise minimize costs to the State. Payment for Services already completed or in the process of completion shall be adjusted between Counsel and the Office of the Attorney General, in a fair and reasonable manner, but such payment shall exclude any allowance for unperformed Services or anticipated profits thereon. Such payment for Services already completed or in the process of completion shall be the total compensation due to Counsel for Termination at Will by either party.

19. Laws and Regulations

- 19.1. Counsel and its employees shall at all times comply with all applicable federal, state and local laws, ordinances, statutes, rules and regulations. 31.2. Any case assigned to Counsel during the effective period of this Agreement will be performed in accordance with the terms of the Agreement regardless of the calendar year in which the work is performed. Work on a case assigned under this agreement shall continue under the terms of this agreement until the case is resolved or Counsel's assignment is otherwise terminated, regardless of whether the Agreement is renewed or extended.

31.3. Cases involving work over two years may be eligible for an increase in hourly rates. The increase must be based on the Consumer Price Index (CPI) and would be granted at the discretion of the Office of the Attorney General. The request will only be considered if received by the Office of the Attorney General, in January of the year following the anniversary of the minimum two year requirement of first being assigned the case.

32. Assignment of a Case

An award of a Contract is not a promise or a guarantee that Counsel will be assigned a case or cases. If awarded an Agreement, however, Counsel agrees to accept all assignments made by the Office of the Attorney General, except where a genuine conflict of interest exists or other ethical issues prevent Counsel from taking a case. Immediately upon assignment, Counsel will make every effort to determine whether a genuine conflict exists, and if so, will promptly notify the Office of the Attorney General Representative.

33. Withdrawal from Case

Office of the Attorney General
2005 N Central Avenue
Phoenix, AZ 85004

Special requirements applicable to this Agreement are:

1. CONTRACT COMPLIANCE MEETING (MANDATORY)

All awarded firms, as part of their contract award, agree the contact attorney or a senior attorney from the firm shall attend a contract compliance meeting hosted by the Office of the Arizona Attorney General. The meeting will not be billable. The intent of the meeting is to provide firms with information regarding important sections of the contract and due diligence. Topics could include, but may not be limited to: conflict of interest waivers, billable services, required budgeting, firm name changes, key attorney changes, insurance requirements, quarterly reports and other relevant topics.

2. COUNSEL'S PERSONNEL

The Office of the Attorney General reserves the right to designate a specific attorney(s) in Counsel's firm to work on specific cases. Counsel shall employ suitably trained and skilled professional personnel to perform the Service. Prior to changing any key personnel, especially those key personnel who the Office of the Attorney General relied upon in awarding this Agreement, Counsel shall obtain the approval of the Office of the Attorney General. Any replacement personnel shall have capabilities at least equal to those of personnel they replaced for performance of the Services. Counsel shall bear its costs associated with any and all such changes, and said costs shall not be reimbursable by the State of Arizona. While the State of Arizona recognizes that staffing changes may be necessary from time to time, the State of Arizona will not pay for the "downtime" or learning time that may result from such a staffing change. The State of Arizona does not believe it appropriate to pay legal fees for the training of Counsel's personnel. Counsel has been retained because of its expertise. The time Counsel spends educating junior lawyers in the substantive law applicable to the matter assigned may not be included in Counsel's billings. Unless otherwise agreed the State of Arizona expects that only one attorney from Counsel's firm will attend meetings, depositions, and arguments, although a second person may be needed for trials and major hearings or meetings.

3. PRIVILEGED COMMUNICATIONS

All confidential communications between the Office of the Attorney General, any State of Arizona officer, employee or agent ("Arizona") and Counsel, whether oral or written, and all Documentation, whether prepared by Counsel or supplied by Arizona shall be considered privileged communications and shall not, except as required by law, be communicated by Counsel to any public agency, insurance company, rating organization, contractor, vendor, or Counsel, whether or not connected in any manner with Arizona or Counsel, without the prior consent of the Office of the Attorney General. If such communications are approved, or if such communications are required to be disclosed by law, Counsel shall provide the Office of the Attorney General two (2) copies of each written communication and/or two (2) copies of summaries of each oral communication. If such communication is required by law, Counsel shall provide the Office of the Attorney General written notice as to the time, place, and manner of such disclosure as well as a written summary of any information likely to be disclosed by such disclosure, and Counsel's position thereon.

4. INFORMATION DISCLOSURE

Counsel recognizes that as part of the mission of the Agency, the Office of the Arizona Attorney General is involved in cases where information is sensitive and/or confidential. Counsel, its employees, and agents shall not respond to media inquiries regarding cases assigned to them, unless they have prior permission from the Office of the Arizona Attorney General. Counsel, its employees, and agents, shall not confirm or deny the existence of civil, civil rights, or criminal investigations or complaints without prior approval from the Office of the Arizona Attorney General. When discussing cases, Counsel may provide factual information from court records and public documents, provided the information complies with all applicable legal standards, ethical rules, and court orders governing communications about cases or investigations and instructions provided by the Office of the Arizona Attorney General. APPENDIX B - SCOPE OF SERVICES

State of Arizona
Office of the Attorney General
2005 N Central Avenue
Phoenix, AZ 85004

1. General

These guidelines shall serve as the basis upon which Counsel shall provide legal advice, opinions and representation to the State of Arizona under this Agreement. Unless clearly excepted in individual instances, it shall be understood that Services rendered by attorneys shall be furnished in accordance with these guidelines.

2. Client Contact

2.1.Initial authorization for Services will come through the Office of the Attorney General. Counsel shall not initiate contact with any Office of the Attorney General client without first being directed to do so by the Office of the Attorney General. A firm representing the State of Arizona should appoint one senior partner of the firm as the Contact Partner for the State of Arizona. That partner should be prepared to discuss and agree to any Services requested by the Office of the Attorney General pursuant to this Agreement. The Office of the Attorney General will expect to discuss with the Contact Partner at least the following items at any time:

- 2.1.1.1. Nature of the case, advice or other representation.
- 2.1.1.2. Degree of difficulty or uniqueness of service and the level of attorney competence or experience necessary to adequately represent the State.
- 2.1.1.3. Number of attorneys, paralegals, and other personnel which the firm would expect to assist the assigned attorney.
- 2.1.1.4. Extent of out-of-pocket expenses might be anticipated including computer research time, travel, overtime, outside fees such as license fees and similar costs. Copy fees ordinarily would not be considered unless anticipated to be substantial.
- 2.1.1.5. Possibility of a fixed fee as an alternative to hourly rates. Hourly rates of persons assigned to the matter/case will be used as the basis of any fixed fee.
- 2.1.1.6. An estimate of the number of hours involved in completing the project or an estimate of the fee which would be incurred. Realistic estimates will be a consideration in assigning subsequent cases to the firm.

2.2.The Contact Partner would be expected to assign the case to an attorney who would act as the contact for future activity on the matter. The Contact Partner would be available to Arizona in the event of any future problems arising from the representation.

2.3.Assignments made by State Agencies with statutory authority to retain legal counsel shall follow similar procedures and include verifying the State Agency has statutory authority to retain Counsel for the matter.

3. Assigned Attorneys

The Office of the Attorney General expects the Contact Partner to assign each project to a competent attorney and that the assigned attorney will complete the project unless extenuating circumstances arise. The Office of the Attorney General will not pay for multiple conferences between attorneys, continuing review of files by various personnel, duplication of effort, or supervision of an associate by a senior partner. If the Office of the Attorney General is dissatisfied with the level of legal assistance, it may discuss the matter with the Contact Partner, and, if necessary, the level of needed expertise can be reevaluated. The Office of the Attorney General has no objection to supervision of associates by senior partners but will not increase its costs by such supervision. Paralegal assistance is desirable and acceptable to the Office of the Attorney General as is additional attorney assistance if such assistance is necessary and is held to a reasonable level. If a project involves several areas which require different expertise, advance discussion should be held with the Office of the Attorney General to determine the manner and extent of coordination required of the various areas.

4. Case Budgeting

The Office of the Attorney General and assigned attorney and/or the Contact Partner shall discuss a legal fee and expense budget which might be realistic for each assigned case. Each litigated case will be examined for the necessity of deposition, interrogatories, anticipated response to interrogatories, the extent to which the Office of the Attorney General can provide assistance in investigation, preparation or answer of interrogatories, anticipated motions, the chances of success of such motions and their cost, travel, out-of-pocket expenses involved in assembling evidence for trial or exhibits. All activities shall be considered as to effectiveness, necessity and whether alternatives are available.

5. Case Management

5.1. The Office of the Attorney General expects to be kept advised of progress on all matters. An initial case/matter management meeting is required within thirty (30) days of case/matter assignment between the Office of the Attorney General, client representative (i.e. Risk Management Section of the Department of Administration, if insurance defense case) and the assigned attorney. The meeting's purpose is to discuss the scope and nature of the matter and, if a litigation case, to assess merits of the lawsuit and monetary exposure to the State of Arizona, to establish initial defense strategy, investigation, assignments, case management instructions and fee limitations. During this meeting Counsel should submit an initial budget, estimating fees and costs through the end of the current fiscal year (June 30) and through completion of the case. Counsel shall notify the State when and if it becomes apparent that the budget is being or will be exceeded. The budget should specifically identify the work expected to be done, the identity and billing rate of each attorney and paralegal to be involved, and the amount of time the work is expected to take. The Office of the Attorney General expects this budget to project the anticipated work, fees and costs through the end of the current fiscal year (June 30) and through completion of the case, with the budget updated quarterly and submitted to the Office of the Attorney General and client representatives (i.e. Risk Management Section of the Department of Administration, if insurance defense case) without reminder from the State of Arizona.

5.2. Counsel shall provide the Office of the Attorney General and client representatives (i.e. Risk Management Section of the Department of Administration, if insurance defense case) a written quarterly report of progress on assigned case/matter as well as a report when significant developments occur. If no activity has occurred, a simple letter to that effect will be satisfactory. The AGO should not receive quarterly reports on any case matter for which the AGO has declared a conflict of interest. A copy of the budget should be included with each quarterly report.

5.3. Notices of depositions shall not be sent by Counsel without prior written authorization from the Office of the Attorney General. Notices of depositions of State of Arizona employees filed by any party will be submitted to the Office of the Attorney General immediately upon Counsel's receipt to make necessary arrangements for their testimony. Summaries of all depositions will be supplied by the assigned Counsel on conclusion of the deposition. Ordinarily only one attorney should attend depositions. The Office of the Attorney General may request the presence of a State of Arizona employee at one or more depositions. Before copies of depositions are ordered, Counsel shall consider the necessity and is encouraged to avoid copies of deposition of questionable value. Copies of portions of depositions should be considered.

5.4. All offers of compromise made by a plaintiff shall be promptly transmitted to the Office of the Attorney General, (Risk Management Section of the Department of Administration, if an insurance defense case) together with Counsel's recommendation. Arizona will be responsible for obtaining proper authority to accept a compromise or for making a counter-offer.

- 5.5. Counsel shall discuss with the Office of the Attorney General (and Risk Management Section of the Department of Administration, if an insurance defense case) the advisability of attempting to settle a lawsuit when, in the opinion of Counsel, it is deemed in the best interest of Arizona to attempt settlement.
- 5.6. Whenever additional investigation is required by Counsel and can be provided by use of non-attorney investigators, Counsel shall notify the Office of the Attorney General of such need (and the Risk Management Section of the Department of Administration, if an insurance defense case) who will conduct or contract for such investigation. Arizona shall be solely responsible for the accuracy of the facts or other information developed in response to such requests.
- 5.7. Expert witnesses shall be hired only after consultation with and prior written approval by the State of Arizona. Approval for travel by Counsel outside the State of Arizona shall be obtained or confirmed in writing through the Office of the Attorney General prior to departure from the State of Arizona. Expert Witness services shall be billed at cost with no mark up.
- 5.8. Appeals of litigation defended under this Agreement will be filed by Counsel only after obtaining the prior written authorization from the Office of the Attorney General.
- 5.9. The State of Arizona maintains many policies of insurance to provide protection for damages arising from the negligent acts or omissions of its employees and agents. In the event a State of Arizona's insurer is involved with a case, the firm will be notified of the insurer's involvement and contact with the insurer shall be through the Risk Management Section of the Department of Administration. A copy of all correspondence and quarterly evaluations shall be provided for the insurer through Risk Management.

6. Correspondence

All correspondence between the firm and the Office of the Attorney General shall be addressed to:

To: State of Arizona:
Office of the Attorney General
2005 N Central Ave
Phoenix, Arizona 85004

To: Counsel:
The person identified in the Offer and Acceptance Form.

To the extent possible, correspondence should reference the file numbers of both the Office of the Attorney General and the Risk Management Section of the Department of Administration.

7. Conflicts

Arizona recognizes the difficulties in determining conflicts for law firms involved in representing more than one client. It does not wish to unduly hamper Counsel's activity because of a remote conflict and will work with a firm in attempting to resolve conflicts. It is expected that a firm will advise the Office of the Attorney General of any perceived conflict and that the decision as to whether the conflict is remote or disqualifying will be the decision of the Office of the Attorney General. Counsel may, upon referral of a claim or lawsuit, decline to defend. Counsel may also withdraw from representation of the State of Arizona when it would be ethically improper to continue to do so and upon the Court granting a motion permitting withdrawal. In the event Counsel must either withdraw from a case or declines to defend, the Office of the Attorney General shall be immediately notified in writing or by telephone if time is of the essence.

7.1. Request for Waiver of Conflict Form

A Request for Waiver of Conflict Form must be submitted in writing either by mail, e-mail, or transmitted by fax to the AZ Attorney General's Office. Normal response time is approximately 5-7 business days. Expedited requests will be considered with a valid written justification. One request form is expected for each case submitted for consideration.
