

Office of the Attorney General
State of Arizona

Terry Goddard
Attorney General

Office of Victim Services

August 31, 2005

Dear BFA Investor:

Re: State v. Crotts; Grabinski; and Friend, CR#2001-006183

Jury selection for the trial is set to begin on September 14, 2005 at 9:00 a.m. before the Honorable Kenneth L. Fields. Please note; the location and dates for the trial may change on a daily basis. Currently, the trial is scheduled to be held at Maricopa County Superior Court, Central Court Building (CCB), 4th Floor, 201 West Jefferson, Phoenix, Arizona 85003.

The Arizona Attorney General's Office of Victim Services is currently preparing for the upcoming trial date. As you know, there are a large number of victims in this case and the Office of Victim Services would like to ensure that all victims are able to view the proceedings if they wish. You have a lawful right to attend the trial. If you are planning to attend any or all of the trial proceedings, please contact our office by email at bfa@azag.gov or letter to Arizona Attorney General's Office of Victim Services, Attn: BFA Advocate, 1275 West Washington, Phoenix, Arizona 85007. Your assistance with this matter will help assure that all victims who wish to do so may view the proceedings.

If your testimony is necessary at the trial, you will be contacted by the Assistant Attorney General's Office. It is possible that plea negotiations may begin at any time before the trial date. If this happens, we will notify you of the plea negotiations and of the rights you are entitled to regarding plea negotiations.

As the trial date approaches it is anticipated that there will be many additions or changes to the court calendar, including the courtroom location for the trial. As a reminder the most up to date information can be obtained on the BFA website at www.azag.gov or the BFA helpline at (602) 364-1275 or if you are outside Maricopa County, (866) 823-6577. We encourage you to rely on these sources for the current status of this case.

Sincerely,

Office of Victims Services