Dear BFA Investor:

Re: State v. Crotts; Grabinski; Friend; and Hoover, CR#2001-006183

On December 21, 2004, the court granted the defendants' motions for continuance of the June 2005 trial. The trial has been rescheduled for August 3, 2005 at 9:30 a.m. before the Honorable Gregory H. Martin, Maricopa County Superior Court, Central Court Building (CCB), 11th Floor, 201 West Jefferson, Phoenix, Arizona 85003.

Prior to the trial, a status conference and hearing on various motions has been scheduled for January 13, 2005 at 3:00 p.m. before Judge Martin, in the same courtroom mentioned above.

You are not required to attend either of these court proceedings unless you are subpoenaed, however, you have the lawful right to be present if you so desire. Please be advised it is common for court proceedings to be delayed or rescheduled for various reasons. If you plan to attend, you may want to call the Maricopa County Superior Court at (602) 506-8575 in advance to verify that the court proceedings have not been continued.

If your testimony is necessary at the trial, you will be subpoenaed by the Assistant Attorney General. A subpoena is a court order which requires you to be available to testify from the time and date on your subpoena, until such time as you are specifically excused.

It is possible that plea negotiations may begin at any time before the trial date. If this happens, we will notify you of the plea negotiations and of the rights you are entitled to regarding plea negotiations.

The Attorney General's Office of Victim Services will continue to keep you informed of any changes or hearings in this matter. For the most up to date case information, you may check our Website at www.azag.gov or call our BFA Help Line at (602) 364-1275 or if you are outside Maricopa County, 1-866-823-6577. Should you need additional assistance, our advocates can be reached via email at bfa@azag.gov.

Sincerely,

Office of Victim Services
